"Pursuing Our Past" to be the Theme of an Intergenerational Mini-Shabbaton Saturday, March 13

The Park Avenue Synagogue Family Education Committee will sponsor an Intergenerational Mini-Shabbaton which will be held on Saturday, March 13th. Its theme will be "Pursuing Our Past" and it will consist of a program after the Shabbat service which will include a buffet lunch and sessions to be led by several of Park Avenue Synagogue's clergy on the following topics:

- "What's in a Name?" - The meaning of your name; try to find your name in the Torah scroll
- Adon Olam in different musical and historical settings
- Personal family histories or "show & tell" heirlooms
- A brief history of the Jewish world. Trace the migration, establishment and decline of Jewish communities through history since

WEG Program Meeting on "Planning and Control of Your Future"

Monday Evening, March 15

The Women's Evening Group is pleased to announce that it will be holding an open program meeting at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, March 15 on the subject of "planning for the future, both financially and legally."

This program will feature two experts:

- Charles McKenna, manager of John Hancock Financial Services for the Eastern Long Island Agency of the John Hancock Insurance Company;
- Russell Adler, an attorney with the firm of Epstein, Becker & Green who specializes in eldercare, trusts and estates.

They will discuss the financial aspects of planning for your future in terms of various types of retirement plans, financial investments, and disability insurance, as well as the legal aspects of controlling your future in terms of eldercare, trusts and estate planning.

Plan to join the WEG for a highly informative evening about how to plan and control your life more effectively!

Refreshments will be served.

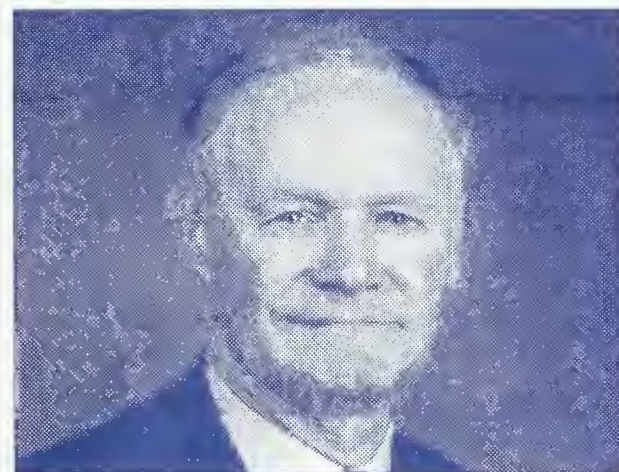

Synagogue Receives Continuity Grant and Engages Yehudit Moch as Family Educator

Apple picking, Ellis Island, lulav shopping, storyteller Peninnah Schram, Shabbat afternoon programs. These were all events planned by the Park Avenue Synagogue Family Education Committee.

To enable the congregation to plan many more such programs, the synagogue has applied to UJA/Federation and has been awarded a "Jewish Continuity Grant." With these monies it has also initiated the membership survey, which was distributed last fall, and welcomed Ms. Yehudit Moch to its staff as

Police Commissioner Howard Safir to Speak at Men's Club Service

On Friday evening, March 19, the Men's Club will hold its annual Shabbat service followed by a Congregational Shabbat Dinner. Men's Club members will participate in the service, at which the guest speaker will be New York City Police Commissioner Howard Safir.

Although Commissioner Safir served as the City's Fire Commissioner prior to being appointed Police Commissioner, his career in law enforcement dates to 1965 when he worked for the former Federal Bureau of Narcotics (now called the Drug Enforcement Agency), eventually rising to the rank of assistant director. The commissioner has also held various positions in the U.S. Marshal Service. Among the investigations he headed was the discovery and confirmation of the remains of Nazi war criminal Dr. Joseph Mengele.

Mayor Giuliani appointed Howard Safir his Police Commissioner nearly three years ago. During his tenure there have been sizable reductions in major crimes and homicides, as well as many anti-drug initiatives.

The 6:15 P.M. service will be followed by a Congregational Shabbat Dinner and a question and answer period with the commissioner. Advance reservations for the dinner are required. Please call the synagogue office at 369-2600 to make your reservation.

The Men's Club invites you to join it for this special evening!

Rabbinic Ruminations

I am often asked by members, "How do I go about getting involved in the Synagogue?" Or, "How do I get to feel like I am a part of the Congregation and that this is my home?"

The answer is no great secret; it requires no special talent or extraordinary gift; and you don't need to be "well-connected." What you need to do is to come to the shul. By this I don't mean getting involved in one activity or attending only certain programs of particular interest to you. I mean coming to shul—to services, especially the Saturday morning service.

You will find that the Shabbat morning regulars are a warm, friendly, welcoming crowd, but as with anything, it will take a little time for you to "break in"—to be recognized as a familiar face, as one of the regulars yourself. So what you need to do is to come to shul with some degree of consistency.

There is one more thing you need to be prepared to do: come to shul and linger. It is not enough to attend the services and leave, or to stay just long enough at the Kiddush to have a cookie or two and then rush off. In order to feel like a part of the community with whom you pray, you have to get to know them and to give them an opportunity to get to know you.

Then, if you're away for awhile, you'll be pleasantly surprised to be greeted upon your return with, "Where have you been? Haven't seen you for sometime! Welcome back!", and even, "We missed You!" There is no greater sense of being a valued member of a community—of feeling that you truly belong—than to hear those words.

But, what if you don't know Hebrew or aren't familiar with our service? The synagogue offers Hebrew reading courses twice a year (the next one begins on March 17th!), and many of our Shabbat morning regulars would be happy to have you sit next to them and to guide you through the service. All you have to do is ask one of the Rabbis or Cantors to arrange this.

And when you do come to shul, you will discover, or rediscover, how wonderful and participatory the service is. We're doing our best to make everyone feel at ease and welcome. The next step is up to you.

See you in Shul!

— Rabbi Kenneth A. Stern

March B'not Mitzvah

Molly Alissa Glenn
March 6, 1999

Molly Glenn is in the seventh grade at the Abraham Joshua Heschel School. She enjoys math, the Internet and talking on the phone with her friends.

Outside of school, Molly sings with the Park Avenue Synagogue Youth Chorale, acts with the Teen Theater of the JCC on the Upper West Side and plays softball in the West Side Girls Softball League.

She has visited Israel three times, including living for a year on Kibbutz Gezer with her family.

Last summer, Molly attended Camp Ramah in Nyack. She also participated in the ninth annual North American Jewish Choral Festival.

She resides with her parents, Cantor Nancy Abramson and Mitch Glenn, her sister, Arielle, her brother, Ezra, and her cat and hamster.

Leslie Rubin
March 13, 1999

Leslie Rubin will be turning 13 on March 8th. She has been studying at the Park Avenue Synagogue Hebrew School for the past five years. Before that she studied at the Darche Shalom Hebrew School.

Leslie is in the seventh grade at the Dalton School and enjoys it very much there. She also enjoys acting, singing, art, tennis, soccer, skiing and volleyball, which she practices throughout the year and at the summer camp she attends in New Hampshire.

Leslie went to Israel in December and read Torah on Masada as part of a group B'not Mitzvah. It was a meaningful experience for her to have a Bat Mitzvah in Israel. While there, she visited the Sdei Chemed School for children with severe emotional and learning problems. She will be making tzedekah part of her celebration by helping Sdei Chemed buy computers and software for these children.

"Shabbat Across the Congregation"

On Friday, March 12, 1999, the National Program for Jewish Outreach is sponsoring "Shabbat Across America." Last year 60,000 people participated in Shabbat services and meals and this year 80,000 are expected to participate. This is significant since tradition tells us that if every Jew observed just one Shabbat fully, redemption would come!

This year we have decided to emphasize the home aspect of Shabbat. To that end, we encourage you to host or to be a guest at a Shabbat meal on Friday evening, March 12th. In this way we will be part of "Shabbat Across America," while at the same time enjoying a more intimate Shabbat atmosphere.

The complete blessings and songs for the Shabbat table can be found in almost any sid-dur (prayerbook) or bentscher (booklet for Grace After Meals). Excerpts from Rabbi Lincoln's Park Avenue Synagogue Bulletin article of December, 1996 printed below provide some insights on Shabbat as well as some of the blessings, for your convenience.

Further materials on the "Why's of Shabbat," as well as tapes of the home ritual, can be obtained from Rabbi Berkowitz; additional recommended readings for deepening your understanding of Shabbat are: It's a Mitzvah by Bradley Shavit Artson and Gates of Shabbat by the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" (Exodus 28:8)

Excerpts from Rabbi Lincoln's December, 1996 article:

Whatever your plans may be for Friday evening or Saturday before dark, try to make it different from all other days in some specific way. Of course, the rules of Shabbat observance are complicated and numerous, and worth studying in depth, but here are a few suggestions that will begin to make it memorable and special.

We all need a day to escape from all the pressures of life. A day we don't have to worry about shopping, driving, business, examinations, etc., etc. A time to sit quietly with our

In Celebration of Passover

Funds For Ma'ot Hittin

It is an ancient tradition among our people to help our less fortunate fellow Jews celebrate Passover by contributing funds for Ma'ot Hittin, literally "money for wheat," the wheat used to make matzah.

If you wish to do so, please send your contribution to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund and designate it for the Passover Fund.

Selling Hametz

Members of the congregation who wish to "sell their hametz" through the offices of Rabbi Lincoln may do so by calling his secretary during business hours at 369-2600. Offerings may be made to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund.

The Food Pantry suggests that when you physically rid your home of hametz, you donate the food to the Food Pantry for distribution to the hungry poor in our neighborhood. You will be performing a double mitzvah by bringing your hametz to the synagogue for this purpose.

Project Ezra

Our high school students will be assisting Project Ezra deliver Kosher for Passover food packages to the elderly members of Project Ezra on Sunday, March 28th from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. Volunteer adults with cars are needed to drive the high school students around the Lower East Side. If you would like to volunteer to help, please call Misha Avramoff at Project Ezra at 982-4124 between 11 A.M. and 3 P.M.

Project Dorot

We are invited to assist Project Dorot reach out to elderly poor living on the Upper West Side by delivering Passover packages to them.

There are several things we can do to help. We can purchase and/or collect Kosher for Passover foods and deliver them to the offices of Project Dorot. We can volunteer to help deliver Passover packages to elderly persons. For more information or to volunteer, please call Project Dorot at 769-2850.

Celebrations in the Mazer School of Religious Studies

Study seders will take place on March 23, 24 and 25.

Service For The Firstborn

On Wednesday morning, March 31 at the 7:15 A.M. service, the rabbis will conduct a Siyum for the firstborn.

Congregational Sedarim

A traditional seder will take place at the synagogue on the first and second nights of Passover, Wednesday and Thursday March 31 & April 1 following the evening services.

The first seder will be conducted by Cantor David Lefkowitz, assisted by the Synagogue Choir, with Neil Robinson at the piano. The second seder will be conducted by Rabbi Miriam C. Berkowitz leading a participatory Communal Seder.

Passover Dietary Laws

Prohibited Foods

Prohibited Foods include: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffee with cereal derivatives in them, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol. In addition, most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans, peas, peanuts; but string beans are permitted). Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid the use of legumes in a form other than its natural state, for example, corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil, peanut oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult Rabbi Lincoln for guidance in the use of these products.

Permitted Foods

A. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee (without cereal additives), sugar, pure tea, salt, pepper, natural spices, fruit juices with no additives (frozen, canned, or bottled), frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes, see above), milk, butter, cottage cheese, cream cheese, tuna in water (no oil added), frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives), baking soda.

B. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (except for legumes above), eggs, fresh fish and fresh meat.

C. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: All baked products (matzoh, cakes, matzoh flour, farfel, matzoh meal, and any products containing matzoh), wine, vinegar, liquor, oils, dried fruits, candy, chocolate flavored milk, ice cream, yogurt, and soda.

D. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased during Pesah: Processed foods (canned, frozen, or bottled): milk, butter, juices, vegetables, fruit, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in category C.

Detergents: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher lePesah label.

Medicine: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guides should be followed: If the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used during Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult Rabbi Lincoln. In all cases, capsules are preferable.

Kashering of Utensils

The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

A. Earthenware (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. But fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

B. Metal (wholly made of metal) used in fire (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking and eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots have water boiled in them which will overflow the rim. The utensils should not be used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal baking utensils family or friends around a table when we can renew energy. Why not make Friday night that special time?

The simple ceremony of lighting the candles before sunset, reciting the blessing and, in the words of Rabbi Artson, "reflect on the events of the week, on the people who make life worth living, and on the warmth and beauty of the candles. Enjoy the glow."

If this ceremony can be followed by kiddush and the eating of challah you will have made this meal something exceptionally beautiful and special.

Here is a guide for beginners which might be helpful to you.

Before sunset, the women, or, if a man lives alone, the man kindles the lights (two or more candles) and recites the following blessing:

ברוך אתה יי אלהינו מלך העולם. אשר קדשנו
במצותיו וצונו להקליק נר של שבת:

BARUCH ATAH ADONAI ELOHENU MELECH HA-OLAM
ASHER KIDSHANU BMITSVOTAV VETSIVANU
LEHADLIK NER SHEI SHABBAT

Blessed are You, Lord, our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us by Your commandments, and has commanded us to kindle the Sabbath lights.

(May our home be consecrated, God, by Your light. May it shine upon us all in blessing, as the light of love and truth, the light of peace and good will.) Amen.

The leader then recites the Kiddush
(Sanctification) for the Sabbath:

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us by Your commandments, and, in Your love, has given us the holy Sabbath, as a sign of an everlasting covenant between You and the children of Israel. May we, by the celebration of the Sabbath, be consecrated to Your service, and become sharers in the blessings of Your truth. Blessed are You, Lord, who sanctifies the Sabbath.

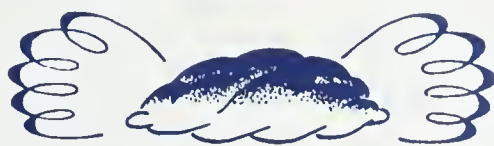

Lifting the cup of wine, the following blessing is pronounced:

ברוך אתה יי אלהינו מלך העולם
בורא פרי הגפן:

BARUCH ATAH ADONAI ELOHENU MELECH HA-OLAM
BORE PERI HA-GAFEN

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the world, who has created the fruit of the vine.

All members at the table then drink the wine.

After washing the hands with the blessing "al netilat yadayim," the following blessing is said over two loaves of bread or Challah:

ברוך אתה יי אלהינו מלך העולם
המוציא לחם מן הארץ:

BARUCH ATAH ADONAI ELOHENU MELECH HA-OLAM
HA-MOTSI LECHEM MIN HA-ARETS

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

(Each person partakes of the bread. To encourage the interest and participation on the part of the children, the blessings over the wine and bread are frequently recited by various members of the family. Music, whether wordless melodies, traditional Shabbat songs or any other songs, adds to the joyous atmosphere of the meal.)

our part-time family educator.

Ms. Moch, who has a master of social work degree in Jewish communal service, is also a graduate of The Board of Jewish Education's Jewish Family Life Education Program. Most recently, she has worked at the Kings Bay and Shorefront Y's as their Jewish educator and program specialist, respectively. Yehudit is a native New Yorker, a committed Conservative Jew and very active and involved in her home congregation.

In her capacity as our family educator, she will be responsible for all activities of the Family Education Committee which is chaired by Marcia Colvin, for providing the congregation with information about itself based on the data collected from the congregational survey, for coordinating and creating a congregation-wide program calendar, and for sensitizing all who plan program activities within the synagogue to think more broadly and inclusively (e.g., intergenerationally) when planning their events.

We welcome Yehudit Moch to her new position within our synagogue, and we express our thanks to UJA/Federation for giving us the opportunity to further expand our programming and to draw our congregation closer together.

cannot be kashered.

C. Oven and Ranges: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be scrubbed and cleaned and then put through the self-cleaning cycle. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens. Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned and then a cup of water should be placed in it. Then the oven should be turned on until the water disappears. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered.

D. Glassware: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours, while the other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah or putting it through a dishwasher.

E. Dishwasher: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. Electrical Appliances: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. Tables, closets, and counters: If used with hametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. Kitchen sink: A metal sink can be kashered by a thorough cleaning, and by pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be clean and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

I. Hametz and non-Passover utensils: Non-Passover dishes, pots and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked so as to prevent accidental use.

Myriad March Events in the Religious School

The following events will take place in the elementary school during the month of March:

- Monday, March 1 at 6 P.M., the Poppy Seed Theater will present the Purim story to the Gan, Alef and Bet students. The reading of Megilat Ester will take place at 6:45 P.M. All students and their families are invited to attend.

- Friday, March 5 at 6:15 P.M., the Hay grade will conduct the Friday night service in the Main Sanctuary. After the service, the students and their parents will enjoy a festive Shabbat dinner.

- Saturday, March 6, the Vav grade will have a parent/student "Together" program at 8:45 A.M. The subject will be "Bar/Bat Mitzvah in the Jewish tradition."

What is "Kosher Sex"?

Rabbi Shmuley Boteach, a frequent guest on radio and television programs in England, will launch the U.S. edition of his sensational book, Kosher Sex, at PAS on Wednesday, March 17 at 7:30 P.M.

- Sunday, March 7, the Zayin grade will have its mandatory session from 9:30 A.M. to 1 P.M. Then the students and their parents will tour the Lower East Side with "Big Onion Walking Tours."

- Monday, March 8, the Bet grade will have its parent/student "Together" program at 5 P.M. in room 408.

- Saturday, March 13, the school Family Service, under the leadership of Rabbi Miriam Berkowitz, will take place from 9:45 to 11 A.M.

- Tuesday, March 16, the Gan students will visit the Matzah Factory and will have a chance to bake their own matzah.

- Thursday, March 18, the Alef students will visit the Matzah Factory and will have the chance to bake their own matzah.

March in the Rabbi Judah Nadich High School

During this month, the high school students will take part in two very important activities:

- On Sunday, March 14, they will prepare sandwiches and deliver them to the homeless.

- On Sunday, March 28, they will prepare Pesach Packages for Project Ezra from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. and then they will deliver the packages directly to the homes of Project Ezra's Lower East Side Jewish elderly.

Passover at Judaica Classics

Let Judaica Classics at 125 East 85th Street help you with your observance of Passover. The gift shop has a large selection of seder plates, matzoh plates and covers, kiddush cups and afikomen bags. In addition to individual items, it also features several groups of coordinated sets to help enhance the beauty of your seder table. The seder plates, the majority of which are made of china or glass, come in a variety of colorful motifs.

There also will be a large selection of Haggadot for adults and children, cookbooks and many other items for your personal or gift-giving needs.

Please mention that you are from Park Avenue Synagogue if you make a purchase there and our synagogue will benefit as well.

Park Avenue Synagogue Bikur Cholim Project

Since its inception in November, 1998, the group has received referrals; it has made visits, sent cards and initiated telephone contact with sick and homebound congregants.

Members are eager to be of service to the synagogue community. Please contact them through Rabbi Lincoln's secretary, Liya, at extension 149 in the synagogue office, 369-2600.

Food Pantry Shabbat Saturday, April 3

As it does every year, the Park Avenue Synagogue will honor the students in the Rabbi Judah Nadich High School who commit themselves weekly, year-round to the important mitzvah of feeding the poor and hungry in our community. They do this through the congregation's Food Pantry Project.

This special tribute to them will take place during the Shabbat morning service on Saturday, April 3.

Since the continuation of this project depends upon the financial support of the entire congregation, plan to renew your own support of one of our synagogue's most worthwhile programs!

Mrs. Roberta Zinbarg, upon the death of her father, Max Goldman.

Men's Club Scholarship Fund

In October, Marc Powers, president of the Park Avenue Synagogue Men's Club, launched a matching fund for the Men's Club Scholarship Fund which helps children in our religious schools whose parents are unable to afford to pay for all or part of their Hebrew school education.

The fundraising was done in memory of Herman Berger, a longtime Men's Club member.

The Men's Club is pleased to report that $5,000 has been raised and that the organization will also give that amount, for a total of $10,000, for scholarships for the religious education of youth in our congregation and schools.

Hat's off to the Men's Club!!
